EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with T. Clise on 12/24/2003.

The application has been amended as follows:

Claims 27-31 have been amended in the following manner:

27. (Currently Amended) A cleaning device for substrate handling equipment ~~a processing surface~~, comprising:
~~a processing surface~~ an engaging device adapted to engage a substrate support; and a particle removal unit on the ~~processing surface~~ engaging device, wherein the particle removal unit includes bristles capable of contacting a face of the substrate support ~~processing surface~~ to remove a particle therefrom.
28. (Currently Amended) The cleaning device of claim 27, wherein the ~~processing surface~~ engaging device includes an arm for moving the bristles ~~particle removal surface~~ into contact with a face of a substrate support ~~processing surface~~.
29. (Currently Amended) The cleaning device of claim 28, wherein the ~~processing surface~~ engaging device includes a spin drive for rotating the particle removal unit relative to the arm.
30. (Currently Amended) The cleaning device of claim 29, wherein the arm includes a joint.
31. (Currently Amended) The cleaning device of claim 30, wherein the arm includes a fixed support and the joint pivots the particle removal unit ~~surface~~ relative to the fixed support.

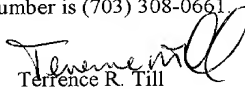

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art does not disclose nor render obvious the claimed combination, particularly the concept of the spindle chuck, or wafer support, being cleaned or removed of particles. All the prior art shows the wafer being cleaned, not the wafer support. Since claim 1 is generic, all pending claims are allowed.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
